

Patient Financial Policy

Thank you for selecting our practice as your healthcare provider. We are committed to providing you with compassionate and quality care. Please understand that payment is expected for services rendered. The following is a statement of our financial policy. Please read, sign and date this policy prior to treatment. Provide the receptionist any current medical insurance cards that should be used to cover services. For your convenience, our practice accepts Visa, MasterCard, Discover, Cash and Personal Checks.

We accept assignment for benefits for most insurance plans. However, we do require that all co-pays, co-insurance and deductibles be paid at the time of service. Your insurance policy is a contract between you and your insurance carrier. You are responsible for providing our practice with the correct insurance information at the time of service or you may be responsible for the charges in full. Should your insurance company fail to pay for services rendered, you may be responsible for the entire bill charge submitted to the insurance carrier. Co-insurance and deductibles balances that remain the responsibility of the patient, according to the insurance carrier terms, should be remitted to Hypertension and Kidney Care of North Atlanta, LLC. Failure to remit payment may result in the patient's account being turned over to an outside collection agency.

Patients that are not covered by an insurance plan are responsible for services rendered at the time of service. For patient's that are unable to pay for services in full, new patient is require to pay $175.00 and established patient is require to pay $125.00 at time of service. Payment for any remaining balance is payable within 30 days of the date of service. Failure to remit payment may result in the patient's account being turned over to an outside collection agency.

I have read and agreed to the financial policy of Hypertension and Kidney Care of North Atlanta, LLC.
